About BrokerCheck®

BrokerCheck offers information on all current, and many former, registered securities brokers, and all current and former registered securities firms. FINRA strongly encourages investors to use BrokerCheck to check the background of securities brokers and brokerage firms before deciding to conduct, or continue to conduct, business with them.

What is included in a BrokerCheck report?

- BrokerCheck reports for individual brokers include information such as employment history, professional qualifications, disciplinary actions, criminal convictions, civil judgments and arbitration awards. BrokerCheck reports for brokerage firms include information on a firm's profile, history, and operations, as well as many of the same disclosure events mentioned above.
- Please note that the information contained in a BrokerCheck report may include pending actions or allegations that may be contested, unresolved or unproven. In the end, these actions or allegations may be resolved in favor of the broker or brokerage firm, or concluded through a negotiated settlement with no admission or finding of wrongdoing.
- Where did this information come from?
- The information contained in BrokerCheck comes from FINRA's Central Registration Depository, or CRD® and is a combination of:
 - o information FINRA and/or the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) require brokers and brokerage firms to submit as part of the registration and licensing process, and
 - o information that regulators report regarding disciplinary actions or allegations against firms or brokers.
- How current is this information?
- Generally, active brokerage firms and brokers are required to update their professional and disciplinary information in CRD within 30 days. Under most circumstances, information reported by brokerage firms, brokers and regulators is available in BrokerCheck the next business day.
- What if I want to check the background of an investment adviser firm or investment adviser representative?
- To check the background of an investment adviser firm or representative, you can search for the firm or individual in BrokerCheck. If your search is successful, click on the link provided to view the available licensing and registration information in the SEC's Investment Adviser Public Disclosure (IAPD) website at http://www.adviserinfo.sec.gov. In the alternative, you may search the IAPD website directly or contact your state securities regulator at http://www.finra.org/Investors/ToolsCalculators/BrokerCheck/P455414.
- Are there other resources I can use to check the background of investment professionals?
- FINRA recommends that you learn as much as possible about an investment professional before deciding to work with them. Your state securities regulator can help you research brokers and investment adviser representatives doing business in your state.

Disclosure Events

What you should know about reported disclosure events:

1. All individuals registered to sell securities or provide investment advice are required to disclose customer complaints and arbitrations, regulatory actions, employment terminations, bankruptcy filings, and criminal or civil judicial proceedings.

2. Certain thresholds must be met before an event is reported to CRD, for example:

- A law enforcement agency must file formal charges before a broker is required to disclose a particular criminal event.
- A customer dispute must involve allegations that a broker engaged in activity that violates certain rules or conduct governing the industry and that the activity resulted in damages of at least $5,000.

3. Disclosure events in BrokerCheck reports come from different sources:

- As mentioned at the beginning of this report, information contained in BrokerCheck comes from brokers, brokerage firms and regulators. When more than one of these sources reports information for the same disclosure event, all versions of the event will appear in the BrokerCheck report. The different versions will be separated by a solid line with the reporting source labeled.
- 4. There are different statuses and dispositions for disclosure events:
 - o A disclosure event may have a status of pending, on appeal, or final.
 - A "pending" event involves allegations that have not been proven or formally adjudicated.
 - An event that is "on appeal" involves allegations that have been adjudicated but are currently being appealed.
 - A "final" event has been concluded and its resolution is not subject to change.
 - o A final event generally has a disposition of adjudicated, settled or otherwise resolved.
 - An "adjudicated" matter includes a disposition by (1) a court of law in a criminal or civil matter, or (2) an administrative panel in an action brought by a regulator that is contested by the party charged with some alleged wrongdoing.
 - A "settled" matter generally involves an agreement by the parties to resolve the matter. Please note that brokers and brokerage firms may choose to settle customer disputes or regulatory matters for business or other reasons.
 - A "resolved" matter usually involves no payment to the customer and no finding of wrongdoing on the part of the individual broker. Such matters generally involve customer disputes.

For your convenience, below is a matrix of the number and status of disclosure events involving this broker. Further information regarding these events can be found in the subsequent pages of this report. You also may wish to contact the broker to obtain further information regarding these events.

Regulatory Action Initiated FINRA

By:

Sanction(s) Sought:

Date Initiated: 03/01/2017

Docket/Case Number: 2014040873501

Employing firm when activity occurred which led to the regulatory action:

NYLife Securities, LLC

Product Type: Annuity-Variable

Allegations: Nivens was named a respondent in a FINRA complaint alleging that he circumvented his member firm's written supervisory procedures (WSPs) by failing to process as replacement trades 15 variable universal life (VUL) purchase transactions, totaling approximately $439,805 in first year premiums, even though Nivens recommended that each purchase be funded by withdrawals from an existing variable annuity. The complaint alleges that from 2010 to Nivens' departure from the firm he was subject to heightened supervision by the firm which included a review of the number of replacement transactions processed by Nivens and the suitability of those transactions on a quarterly basis. Nivens was aware of the heightened supervision plan and avoidance of this additional supervision provided motivation for Nivens to conceal that the transactions for his customers were replacements. The complaint also alleges that Nivens actions in circumventing firm procedures and concealing replacements allowed him to continue his pattern of frequently recommending exchanges to reap the benefit of a new commission without being subject to the firm's heightened level of supervisory review associated with such transactions. Each of the VULs was reviewed by a firm supervisor who was unaware that the purchase transaction was part of a replacement. As a result of Nivens' concealment, the firm supervisor reviewing the transaction did not know to perform the heightened review required for replacements. As a result of the transactions at issue, Nivens received $185,737.00 in commissions on the VULs. These commissions were in addition to commissions he had already received on the purchases of the variable annuities that he sold to the same customers. The complaint further alleges that to avoid detection by the firm of the source of the annual premiums for the VULs, Nivens did not process the withdrawals from the variable annuities used to fund the VULs as 1035 exchanges. If Nivens had properly characterized the exchanges, the customers could have avoided significant tax consequences. In addition, the complaint alleges that Nivens further concealed the variable annuity replacements from the firm's supervisory review by directing the customers to write a personal check to fund the annual premium and to fund the check by withdrawing funds from the variable annuity either before or after issuance of the check. Nivens' failure to characterize the transactions as replacements also made the warnings accompanying VUL applications appear irrelevant to the customers. However, because Nivens certified on page one of the documents that the transactions did not involve replacements, he made it appear that the considerations on this two page disclosure did not apply to the VUL purchases. Additionally, eight of the customers unnecessarily incurred surrender charges on the variable annuity withdrawals in the total amount of $4,258.19. Moreover, the complaint alleges that in connection with these transactions, Nivens submitted to the firm annuity documents containing misrepresentations and false information that further disguised the fact that these transactions were replacements and prevented the firm from performing its heightened supervisory review. The documents in question were prepared by Nivens and signed by him prior to submission to the firm. Nivens failed to disclose that an annuity was a source of the funds for purchase of the VULs. Although all of the customers funded their purchases of the VULs with withdrawals from a variable annuity, Nivens chose other sources of funding. Furthermore, the complaint alleges each VUL application was also accompanied by a Replacement Form required to be submitted with each VUL application. For each form at issue, Nivens completed the form himself, and presented the completed form to the customer for the customer to sign. In each instance, Nivens signed the form certifying that it was accurate, when it was not.

Broker Comment:

IN 2012 I MET WITH MY CLIENTS. THEY EXPRESSED TO ME THEIR PLANS OF SOON RETIRING. THEY EXPRESSED THEIR FEAR OF HAVING ENOUGH MONEY TO LAST THROUGHOUT THEIR LIVES SINCE THEIR RELATIVES LIVED TO QUITE OLD AGES.

WE STUDIED THE 1913 TO CURRENT TAX CHART OF THE HISTORY OF THE MARGINAL TAX RATE. IT DEPICTS THAT WE THEY WERE IN THE SECOND LOWEST TAX RATE SINCE THE GREAT DEPRESSION. THEY CONCEDED THAT MORE LIKELY THAT NOT THE TAX RATES WILL GO SIGNIFICANTLY HIGHER OVER THE NEXT THREE DECADES DUE TO THE "SPENDTHRIFT"

GOVERNMENT WHO IS SPENDING "OUT OF CONTROL."

THEY AGREED THAT IT IS WISE TO PAY TAXES NOW AND MOVE SOME OF THEIR FUNDS TO A BETTER TAX POSITION THAN TAKING A CHANCE THAT TAX RATES WILL BE "SIGNIFICANTLY" HIGHER WHEN THEY WILL BE IN THEIR LATE

70'S AND 80'S. SO THEY MADE WITHDRAWALS FROM THEIR MULTIPLE QUALIFIED PLANS. SHE WAS RELUCTANT TO MOVE THE ANY FUNDS FROM HER VERY LARGE INHERITED BROKERAGE MANAGED BY HER BROTHER. WE SIMPLY MOVED HE FUNDS INTO A VARIABLE UNIVERSAL LIFE INSURANCE POLICY. THE CASH VALUE GROWS TAX-DEFERRED AND THEN CAN BE ACCESSED 'TAX FREE" BY SURRENDERING THE BASIS THEN BORROWING FROM THE CASH VALUE. THEY LOVED THE IDEA THAT THE FUNDS WOULD GROW TAX-DEFERRED AND THAT THEY COULD LATER USE THEM FOR TAX FREE SUPPLEMENTAL INCOME.

THIS PLANNING TECHNIQUE HAS BEEN IN EXISTENCE SINCE THE LATE 1980'S. IT IS NOT A "NEW INVENTION". IT HAS BEEN EMPLOYED THOUSANDS OF TIME AND IS "TOUTED" EVERY YEAR AT THE MILLION DOLLAR ROUND TABLE.

THIS SALE WAS VERY SUITABLE TO THEIR UNIQUE SITUATION AND WAS NOT MISREPRESENTED. I MADE IT ABUNDANTLY CLEAR TO THEM. IT IS A SIMPLE PLAN TO ENHANCE THEIR TOTAL PORTFOLIO SINCE THEY HAD NO TAX FREE POSITIONS!

Broker Comment: I HAD A NEAR FATAL BICYCLE ACCIDENT IN 2007. RECOVERY WAS 2 YEARS

DURING WHICH TIME I WAS LATE FILING TAX RETURNS. IRS PLACED A TAX LIEN WITH EMPLOYER, WHICH WAS SATISFIED AND THEN IRS RELEASED LIEN. EMPLOYER OBVIOUSLY LOST PAPERWORK, EXPECTING ME TO DO
